

Sunday July 28 2019 Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

Prelude: "Where E'er You Walk" from Semele - George Frideric Handel

The Collect of the Day:

O God, the protector of all who trust in you,
without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy,
increase and multiply upon us your mercy,
that with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal,
that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever

God of grace, accept all we offer you this day,
as we look toward the glory you have promised.
This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Proper 17C

R. The Lord is close to all who call him.

1 You have been gracious to your land, O Lord,

2 You have restored the good fortune of Jacob.

1 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people and blotted out all their sins.

2 You have withdrawn all your fury

3 and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation. R.

1 Restore us then, O God our Saviour;

2 let your anger depart from us.

3 Will you be displeased with us for ever?

4 will you prolong your anger from age to age? R.

1 Will you not give us life a gain,

2 that your people may rejoice in you?

3 Show us your mercy, O Lord,

4 and grant us your salvation. R.

1 I will listen to what the Lord God is saying,

2 for he is speaking peace to his faithful people

2 and to those who turn their hearts to him.

3 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him,

4 that his glory may dwell in our land. R.

1 Mercy and truth have met together;

2 righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

3 Truth shall spring up from the earth,

4 and righteousness shall look down from heaven. R.

1 The Lord will indeed grant prosperity,

2 and our land will yield its increase.

3 Righteousness shall go before him,

4 and peace shall be a pathway for his feet. R.
