

MAPPING THE GROUND WE STAND ON (PWRDF)

In 2015, as part of its commitment to support the findings of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, PWRDF developed the “education for reconciliation” resource Mapping the Ground We Stand On. This interactive workshop, also known as the Mapping Exercise, invites participants to explore Indigenous presence on the map of Turtle Island/Canada, the history of Settler arrival, and their relationship to one another. It also offers an opportunity for learning and reflection on the concepts of Terra Nullius (empty land), the Doctrine of Discovery and Indigenous knowledge.

As one of our actions in Truth and Reconciliation, our Diocesan PWRDF team is offering the opportunity to participate in the Mapping Exercise, facilitated by John and Nancy Denham (Diocese of New Westminster). The workshop will be offered in each of the Diocese’s four Regions on dates listed below.

Space is limited at each workshop, so please register for your regional workshop as soon as possible at pwrdf@bc.anglican.ca. Deadline: August 31, 2023.
